NORTH TAZEWELL.

Happenings of Our Neighboring Village Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

North Tazewell, April 6, 1910.

W. P. Whitley is quite sick at his home on rural route No. 1.

C. A. Peery, of Maxwell, is a business visitor to this place today.

Mrs. R. M. Booth, who lives near Gravel Hill, is reported ill with pneumonia.

R. H. Ireson, the hustler, is helping Tazewell Supply Company take inventory this week.

Steward Thompson, of Thompson Valley, is in town today shaking hands with his many friends here.

N. W. Kiser, after spending a few days with relatives here, has returned to his home in Russell county.

Nye Britts left Sunday night for Roanoke to take up his duties as secretary to United States Attorney Barnes Gillespie.

Miss Stella Vermillion, who is teaching art at Richlands, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Vermillion.

Prof. Cameron closed his school at this place on last Thursday. Prof. Cameron has made a host of friends while in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Britts and baby, of Chatteroy, W. Va., are spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Britts.

Miss Maud Hannibass, who has been teaching at this place for the past five months, left Monday for her home in Franklin county, Va.

Nannie Rose, Steward and Ellen, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitley, spent the week-end with their grandfather, Mr. John Peery, at Pisgah.

Miss Devinity, of Buchanan county, Miss Katherine Sluss, of Adria, and Miss Nannie McGuire, of this place, spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitley.

John C. Hopkins of this place was conspicuous by his absence from town on last Sunday. Nobody seems to know where he was, and it's a sure thing he's not going to tell.

W. G. O'Brien, of the Tazewell Republican, made the round with Rural Carrier J. D. Gillenwater on last Friday in the interest of his paper. He is building up a splendid paper that is deserving of a liberal patronage.

Bearwallow Items.

Sam Lawson, of Richlands was a recent visitor to Bearwallow.

Rev. J. H. Lilly preached an able sermon at Laird's Chapel on Easter Sunday, his text being from First Corinthians.

We regret to learn that Mr. C. R. Burke, who was taken to the lazaretto at Marion for treatment some time ago, is not improving.

Samuel Allison and L. M. Elswick passed through this place last week looking after some cattle. Sam buys 'em all, both large and small.

D. K. Christian last week received intelligence of the serious illness with pneumonia of his son, A. C. Christian, who is employed by Barrett & Greensburg, at Town Hill, near Richlands.

On Saturday, March 26th, unknown parties set fire to the south side of Seng Camp and before it could be gotten under control burned a big lot of fence for William Young and Harrison Keen.

The farmers here are getting ready for their year's crops. J. W. Christian is done ploughing for corn; J. Mat Whitt has finished sowing oats, while others are rapidly getting their lands in shape for planting.

Burkes Garden News.

Burkes Garden, Va., April 5.

Bowen Long was at home a few days ago on a visit. He is in school at Roanoke.

The weather has been so fine lately that the farmers are about to get ahead with their work.

Rev. S. O. Hall has come out of Winter quarters and preached in the Garden again last Sunday.

Robert Brown and Joseph Leslie came over Saturday on their wheels to get some violets for Sunday.

Burkes Garden is putting on her Spring dress and cock robin is serenading her to the full capacity of his throat.

John T. Fox is preparing to spend the Summer in the Garden. He went home yesterday with a wagon load of flour and a barrel of sugar.

Miss Maude Moss, daughter of Rush Moss, of Burkes Garden, who has been in the School of Expression, Boston, for some months, has appeared several times in recitals. She was again featured on Wednesday, March 23rd, and rendered her part so well that the most critical gave enthusiastic applause.

The recital was devoted entirely to the works of Dickens, and Miss Moss presented David's Proposal and First Quarrel from "David Copperfield." Her dramatic ability and technical finish have impressed friends and teachers alike.

Honor Roll.

Below we give the honor roll for April 1st for the fourth and seventh grades in Tazewell High School, which are under the tutorage of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Hunt and Miss Louise Eanes, respectively.

FOURTH GRADE—MRS. HUNT.
